

'Red Dress' at the Odyssey

The essentials: Set against the social and political turmoil of 1930s Germany, this star-crossed love story about a prominent Jewish actress, a rising German film director and a Nazi officer draws on the experiences of playwright Tania Wisbar's parents.

Why this? One of a vanishing breed of small-theater offerings produced under the Actors' Equity 99-Seat contract, the staging employs multimedia elements to enhance the authenticity of personal history with stills and archival footage.

Details: An Argyle Road Productions presentation at Odyssey Theatre, 2055 S. Sepulveda Blvd., Los Angeles. 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays, 2 p.m. Sundays; ends Nov. 19. $30. (323) 960-5521.

www.Plays411.com/reddress