

Dedicated to nurturing writers and producing new work, the Echo, over its 27 years, has presented 96 Los Angeles premiere productions. Of these, 80 were world premieres and of those, 45 were commissions. WE have just opened the world premiere of Crabs In A Bucket by Bernardo Cubria and we just closed The Thin Place by Lucas Hnath. Before those, we produced Jessica Goldberg's Babe which won the LADCC award for playwrighting, Erik Patterson's Handjob and Sarah DeLappe's The Wolves, which was named one "Best of " by both the LA Times and KCRW. We were given The Polly Warfield award for best season by the LADCC while winning Ovation, LADCC and Stage Raw awards for Molly Smith-Metzler's Cry If Out which was also named by both the LA Times and KCRW for their "Best of " lists. KCRW's Anthony Brynes said: "Echo Theater company is on a fierce journey. They are choosing plays that are consistently challenging and all have a deep conscience...If you wanted to pick one small theatre to add to your cultural roster- Echo is the consistent favorite." While Charles McNulty of the L.A. Times wrote: "The Echo Theater Company production...confirmed just how indispensable 99-seat theaters still are to a healthy theater ecology."

Ann Noble is a writer, actor, director, solo performer, acting teacher/coach, arts educator and a jail chaplain. She is a proud member of the Echo, being last scene on their stage in both Poor Clare (LADCC Award for Best Featured Performance and Best Ensemble) and Little Parts Hunts A Baby-Daddy (her previous solo show, the digital version of which was screened at both Edinburgh Fringe and Sydney Fringe last year). She is also a member of Antaeus Theatre, Rogue Machine, and Warriors For Peace, having worked on and for their stages numerous times, as well as many other theatres across Southern California and throughout Chicago. Her award-winning plays have been produced both nationally and internationally, as have both her new media series. Her directing credits include work with several LA theatres and production companies, as well as for the Museum of Tolerance, LA's Holocaust Museum, LA's LGBT Center, the YWCA, and Homeboy Industries. She currently teaches for Moving Arts Theatre and Hussian College--In Studio L.A. She is also Program Coordinator for Prism Restorative Justice/CFLC which brings chaplaincy to those incarcerated in the LA County jails. She dedicates this solo piece to the women in CRDF.
