

Spring theater picks

by Charles McNulty

I practically had to carry my best friend out of the theater in New York after we saw “Daniel’s Husband,” which will have its Southern California premiere at the Fountain Theatre.

May 1-June 23

“Daniel’s Husband”

Michael McKeever’s play, a comedy that becomes a serious weeper, revolves around a gay couple divided on whether they should officially tie the knot. Simon Levy directs a fine cast that includes Bill Brochtrup, Tim Cummings and Jenny O’Hara. Fountain Theatre, 5060 Fountain Ave., L.A. $25-$45. (323) 663-1525. www.FountainTheatre.com

Tim Cummings, left, Jenny O’Hara and Bill Brochtrup costar in the relationship comedy “Daniel’s Husband” at the Fountain Theatre. (Paul Dimalanta)