CLARE OF ASSISI

(16 July 1194—11 August 1253, born Chiara Offreduccio) was one of the first followers of Saint Francis of Assisi. She founded the Order of Poor Ladies, a monastic religious order for women in the Franciscan tradition and wrote the first set of monastic guidelines known to have been written by a woman, the Rule of Life. Following her death, the order was renamed in her honor as the Order of Saint Clare, commonly referred to today as the Poor Clares.

POOR CLARE

Chiara Atik (Playwright) Chiara Atik's plays include Five Times in One Night, Bump, and From 52nd to Bowery to Cobble Hill, in Brooklyn. WOMEN, her mashup of Louisa May Alcott's Little Women and HBO's Girls, was a NYT Critic's Pick for Comedy, and named 'highbrow brilliant' in New York Magazine's Approval Matrix. She is currently adapting Maggie O'Farrell's best-selling novel, Hamnet, for Amblin, Sam Mendes' Neal Street, and Hera Pictures.

Kelly Beech (Producer) is Producing Director at the Echo. As the child of a Director, Kelly literally grew up in a theater. She started acting as a child and eventually moved west to pursue Film and Television. She has worked on many popular television shows including 911, Mistresses, NCIS, Private Practice, and Criminal Minds. Kelly is thrilled to be a part of the Poor Clare team. Thanks to everyone involved!

Kari Lee Cartwright (Alma) Kari Lee Cartwright is a Korean American Actor, Writer and Director. Most recently, she was on FX's American Horror Stories and can be seen regularly in those hilarious

FOX NFL sketches on Sundays before kickoff. You can also catch her on Hulu's upcoming limited series The Dropout and the final season of HBO's Insecure. What a gift to wear a heavy dress and speak Chiara's words... to be here with you all. For Buddy. @justalittleklc

Martica De Cardenas (Peppa) is delighted to be back on stage. Her recent stage credits include: A Streetcar Named Desire at the Boston Court Performing Arts Center, and In the Heights, and Real

Women Have Curves at the Casa 0101 Theatre. In addition, she has written, directed, and produced a feature-length film: A Summer Song. For more details about Martica, visit www.marticaDecardenas.com. She thanks her family and friends for their continued love and support.

Trinity Catlin (Assistant Stage Manager/ Super) is working towards her Bachelor's degree in English at Loyola Marymount University, with a specialization in creative writing. She has previously worked as an intern with the production team on The Cake by Bekah Brunstetter, and Under the Freeways of Los Angeles by Matthew Paul Olmos.

Tony DeCarlo (The Beggar/ Poor) L.A. theater (selected): Anne (Museum of Tolerance), Roots, Cleo, Theo & Wu, Alternative Acts, Phrazzled (Stage Raw Nomination: Comedy Performance), Young

Writers Project, Blanks, Disassembly (Stage Raw Nomination: Comedy Ensemble), Sheet Cake Sliding, Eat the Runt (Theatre of NOTE); ICU (Circle X); Akuma-shin (Sacred Fools); The Car Plays (Seegerstrom Center for the Arts, La Jolla Playhouse). Thank you to all the Poor Clare'ers and you folks who continue to support live theater. For Buddy. @tonydeek

Alana Dietze (Director) With the Echo: The Wolves (LADCC Winner for Ensemble, 3 Ovation Nominations and 4 Stage Raw Nominations), Dry Land (Ovation Winner: Production, selected for CTG's Block Party Program, 9 Ovation nominations and 4 Stage Raw Nominations), The Found Dog Ribbon Dance, and A Small Fire (4 Ovation Nominations). Elsewhere: You on the Moors Now (CSARTS), Ripe Frenzy (Greenway Ct Theatre). She also serves the Echo as Associate Artistic Director and is an Ovation-nominated actor.

Chris Fields (Producer) is founding Artistic Director of The Echo Theater Company. He also founded and was Artistic Director of the Ojai Playwrights Conference. Most recently, he directed the world premiere of Erik Patterson's Handjob, before that he produced The Wolves and directed Branden Jacobs-Jenkins' Gloria for The Echo. He won a Stage Raw Award for Gloria, an LADCC Award for Firemen and the LA Weekly Award for A Family Thing. He was adjunct professor of drama at SUNY Purchase and maintains a private workshop class in Los Angeles. Thanks to all.

Klint Flowers (Wig and Hair Designer) is a national IATSE artist with a focus in theatre and custom services for private clients and celebrities. His main goal is to provide equitable and diverse experiences for everyone through skills, training, and leadership. Recent projects include wig builds for Megan Thee Stallion's performance at the BET Awards and Doja Cat's opening look in her music video "Streets", as well as Makeup Designer of Rock of Ages Hollywood.

Tal Fox (Casting Director) is an actress, singer, and casting director who spent five years as a Talent Agent at KMR Talent running the Equity/Theater Department and developing the Youth TV/ Film Department. Work in Casting includes credits at 5-Star Theatricals, Center Theatre Group, Theatre @ Boston Court, and Bleecker St. Theatre in NYC.

She previously designed Undivided Heart and Gloria for Echo. She is a member of United Scenic Artists Local-829. www.diannegraebner.com

Jordan Hull (Clare) Rising star Jordan Hull made her television debut starring in Showtime's The L Word: Generation Q opposite Jennifer Beals, Kate Moennig and Leisha Hailey. In the sequel revival to the critically acclaimed and genre-defining series, Jordan portrays Angie, a driven and sensitive young woman coming into her own, and the daughter of Jennifer Beals' character Bette. She will return to the role as a series regular for its second season, which is currently airing. Hull recently wrapped production on the Netflix movie Hustle alongside Queen Latifah, Robert Duvall, Ben Foster and Adam Sandler. The film centers around a down on his luck basketball scout who discovers a once-in-a-lifetime player.

Christopher Jerabek (Production Stage Manager) is a playwright, director, and designer living and working out of Los Angeles. He was blessed to serve as the scenic designer for the world premiere of Davey Anderson's The Abode, at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, and worked as the scenic and projections designer for Pepperdine University's 2020 TEDx event. He is very excited to join the Echo Theater family with Poor Clare and Ascension. See more of Christopher's work at www.jerabekdesign.com.

Dedicated to nurturing writers and producing new work, the Echo, over its 25 years, has presented 86 Los Angeles premiere productions. Of these, 72 were world premieres and of those, 45 were commissions.

Most recently the company produced Erik Patterson's Handjob and Sarah DeLappe's The Wolves, which was named one of the "Best of 2019" by both the LA Times and KCRW. We were given The Polly Warfield award for our 2018 season by the LADCC while winning Ovation, LADCC and Stage Raw awards for Molly Smith-Metzler's Cry It Out which was also named by both the LA Times and KCRW for their "Best of 2018" lists. Anthony Brynes of KCRW said: "Echo theatre company is on a fierce journey. They are choosing plays that are consistently challenging and all have a deep conscience... If you wanted to pick one small theatre to add to your cultural roster — Echo is the consistent favorite." While Charles McNulty wrote: "The Echo Theater Company production...confirmed just how indispensable 99-seat theaters still are to a healthy theater ecology."

The Echo gratefully acknowledges that our theater sits on land stewarded and cared for by the Kizh, Tongva-/Gabrieleño, and Chumash tribes for generations. We honor and respect these nations, peoples, and their enduring relationship to this land.
